

GUIDELINES FOR EVALUATION OF FINAL PROGRESS REPORT

- A. Relevance of Title with the Research Work: (10 max)
- B. Novelty – Idea, Approach, Concept, Hypothesis: (10 max)
- C. Objectives – Accurate, Feasible, Specific, Measurable: (10 max)
- D. Methodology & Method of data collection: (10 max)
- E. Appropriateness of Study Design & Assessment tools: (10 max)
- F. Appropriateness of methods of data analysis / statistical analysis: (10 max)
- G. Research question(s) addressed: (10 max)
- H. Translational value: (10 max)
- I. Timeline followed: (10 max)
- J. Objectives achieved: (10 max)

SPARK ID:

S. No.	Criteria	Score Range	Grades Score
1.	Relevance of Title with the Research Work	(1-10)
2.	Novelty – Idea, Approach, Concept, Hypothesis	(1-10)
3.	Objectives – Accurate, Feasible, Specific, Measurable	(1-10)
4.	Methodology & Method of data collection	(1-10)
5.	Appropriateness of Study Design & Assessment tools	(1-10)
6.	Appropriateness of methods of data analysis / statistical analysis	(1-10)
7.	Research question(s) addressed	(1-10)
8.	Translational value	(1-10)
9.	Timeline followed	(1-10)
10.	Objectives achieved	(1-10)
Total (Max. 100)		(10-100)
Recommended (>50)/ Not Recommended (<50) Please tick			R <input type="checkbox"/> / NR <input type="checkbox"/>
Grading Scale	Grade	Details	Please tick (√)
(85 or above)	Excellent	Major contribution to basic knowledge
(65-84)	Very Good	Technically well-presented and has potential for important contribution to the basic knowledge in the area.
(50-64)	Good	Technically well presented, but lacks required documents. Contribution to knowledge is possible.
